Energizers: "Revolution," "Open Your Heart," "On Top of the World"

Worship is a verb. We all come to worship as participants not as spectators. Energizers help to wake us up, get our bodies moving, our hearts pumping, our lungs filling with air so that we are ready to fully worship God with all of our being.

Prelude: "Come All You People" Easter People

Welcome and Announcements

Processional: "Awake My Soul" Mumford and Sons

Words of Welcome:

Welcome if you FROG—Fully Rely on God—every day of your life and Welcome if you can't stand anything about religions that can be found on a bracelet or refrigerator magnet.

Welcome if you can quote the Bible chapter and verse and Welcome if you're doing good to remember the words to Jesus Loves Me. Welcome to the faithful and the fallible.

Welcome if you are hopeful and Welcome if you are hurting, wherever your thoughts are scattered or gathered, however sure you are about how you are feeling. Know that this is a safe and sacred space. Come and worship just as you are. Everyone is welcome here.

Call to Worship:

Into a world that tells us that there is never enough.

Never enough time, enough money, enough resources, enough likes, enough followers, enough of whatever it is we crave.

Into a world that thrives on the myth of scarcity.

That thrills at our fear that we may run out of time, of patience, of compassion, of data, of hand sanitizer, of toilet paper.

We say enough!

Enough of scarcity, enough of fear, enough of never enough.

For our God is a mighty God, a God of abundance, a God of enough.

And because of that God, We have enough.

Through that God, We live with enough.

With that God, WE are more than enough.

And we are more than enough Because of a God who knows us, claims us, loves us, and Saves us.

We are called to such a time as this. We were called into this place and this space for such a time as this.

Into a world where lives are turned upside down. Into a world where we are acutely aware of how uncertain everything is. Into a world where miracles happen every day. Into a world where people are overworked and overwrought.

We're called to say enough is enough.

Musical Interlude: "Reckless Love" Bethel Music

Prayer of Confession:

One: Please join me in the Prayer of Confession

To the One who is known without even having to be named, it is easy for us not to believe in enough. We're bearing witness to a war no one thought could happen. We can't afford to fill our gas tanks. We've spent years in a pandemic. We've missed out on a lot. We have tried so hard to be enough in the midst of all the madness, in a world we never expected. Forgive us when we don't recognize the power of Your presence in our lives. Try not to laugh too hard when we fool ourselves into thinking that we can make it our own. If this world is ever going to be enough, if we are going to be enough, we need You. Pull us in. Fill us up. Help us to experience being more than enough with YOU. Amen.

Faith Formation

Anthem: "You Are More Than Enough"

The Message: You Are More Than Enough
Madilyn Winterheimer, Hailey Tucker

* Affirmation of Faith:

We believe that God is present even when we fail to recognize that presence. We believe that God is present even when we fail to name that presence. We believe that we are created in the image of God and that nothing that was and is and ever shall be can separate us from that love. We believe that we are at our best when we rely on God. We believe that God can make a way even through a seemingly impossible situation. We believe that we are called to work for a just world, a world the way it should be in spite of the way it is. We believe the spirit is still moving. We believe in the power of community. We believe that, with God and with one another, There is enough We are enough We can do enough. Thanks be to God.

* Prayers of the People

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Invitation to Discipleship and Offering of our Gifts:

Musical Interlude: "Chain Breaker" Zack Williams

Benediction:

Friends, you are more than enough. Depart from this place knowing that. Recognize God's work in your life. Receive God's presence in your midst. Rely on God's grace. Resist injustice wherever you encounter it in this world and Realize that together, with God's help, we can transform this world into a place where everyone knows that they are, indeed, more than enough.

Benediction Response: "Stand In Your Love"

Postlude: "My Lighthouse" Rend Collective
